

Salvatore B. Gianino
Washington University School of Law
One Brookings Drive, MSC 1120-250-102
Saint Louis, Missouri 63130
sgianino@wustl.edu
314-935-7960

Academic Appointments

Washington University School of Law
Associate Professor of Practice (2022-Present)
Director, Intellectual Property Clinic (2018-Present)
Assistant Professor of Practice (2018-2022)
Lecturer in Law (2016-2018)
Assistant Director, Entrepreneurship & Intellectual Property Clinic (2016-2018)

Courses Taught

Constitutional Law
Entrepreneurship & Intellectual Property Clinic
Foundations of Intellectual Property
Legal Writing
Survey of Intellectual Property

Presentations

Annual Meeting for the North American Conference on British Studies, presented “Monopoly, Intellectual Property, and the American Revolution” on the panel “Courtly Economics” (2021) (In-Person)

Postgraduate & Early Career Seminar hosted by the British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies, presented “Intellectual Property in Defense of Liberty” (2021) (Virtual)

Annual Meeting for the Organization of American Historians, presented “Intellectual Property in Defense of Liberty” on the panel “Perceptions and Ideas: New Work in American Military History” (2021) (Virtual; Prerecorded)

Winter workshop for Prefaces, Prologues, and Preliminaries: The Ubiquity of Framing Devices in Legal Traditions in World History co-sponsored by the University of Cincinnati and American Public University, presented “The Purposeful Beginnings of Intellectual Property Law in America” (2021) (Virtual)

IP Clinicians Workshop co-hosted by Indiana University Maurer School of Law and Notre Dame Law School, presented on the panel “Teaching in an IP Clinic During a Pandemic” (2020) (Virtual)

Midwest Clinical Conference hosted by the University of Michigan Law School, presented on the panel “Collaborating for Innovation: Collaborative Approaches to Supporting the IP and Business-Law Needs of Entrepreneurs” (2019) (In-Person)

IP Clinic Workshop hosted by Indiana University Maurer School of Law, presented on the panel “Building Intellectual Property Clinic Relations” (2019) (Invited) (In-Person)

Midwest Clinical Conference hosted by Notre Dame Law School, presented “The Importance of a Clinic’s IP Self-Awareness in a Complex World of Clinical IP” (2018) (In-Person)

Peer Review

Northwestern University Law Review
Washington University Law Review

Education

J.D., Washington University (2007)
Journal of Law & Policy, Associate Editor

B.S., University of Missouri (Industrial Engineering) (2004)
Honors College

Prior Practice Experience

Armstrong Teasdale LLP
Associate, Intellectual Property Services Group (2007-2016)
Prosecuted patent applications before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office; conducted patent clearance, patent validity, and patentability assessments; oversaw patent prosecution and opposition proceedings before the European Patent Office; provided research and analysis in support of patent litigation

Memberships

American Bar Association
American Society for Legal History
Clinical Legal Education Association
Organization of American Historians
Society for Historians of the Early American Republic

Admissions

Missouri
Illinois (Pro Bono Only)
U.S. Patent and Trademark Office