PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, St. Louis, MO

Assistant Professor of Practice & Director, Immigration Law Clinic July 2018 - Present

Teach and supervise upper level law students in the practice of immigration law and client-centered lawyering. Oversee all aspects of student lawyering, including client interviews, case strategy and management, drafting, filing, and trial practice, before U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, the State Department, Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Customs and Border Protection, and the Immigration Court. Lead a weekly seminar course on substantive immigration law and practical lawyering skills. Provide one-on-one supervision through regular student meetings and case rounds.

Adjunct Professor

January 2012 - June 2013

Taught Immigration Law and Policy, an upper level core course, to 2nd and 3rd year JD and LLM students, during the Spring semesters in 2012 and 2013.

Field Supervisor & Adjunct Professor, Civil Rights & Community Justice Clinic January 2006 - May 2008

Supervised Civil Rights and Community Justice Clinic students placed at Interfaith Legal Services for Immigrants (ILSI). Provided training and education in immigration, refugee, and asylum theory and practice. Worked with students on cases involving applications for immigration and naturalization benefits, applications for relief in removal proceeding, and applications for asylum. Coordinated student community education projects.

MIGRANT & IMMIGRANT COMMUNITY ACTION (MICA) PROJECT, Louis, MO

Program Coordinator & Supervising Attorney

September 2014 - June 2018

Directly supervise a team of immigration attorneys handling complex immigration cases including removal defense and affirmative applications. Develop uniform systems and best practices to help ensure the provision of competent, professional, and high quality immigration legal services to low-income immigrant communities. Provide support on case management and work plan development to ensure ambitious goals are met. Provide direct representation in immigration cases, including both removal defense and some affirmative applications. Orient and supervise student interns and volunteers, including law school clinic students and externs. Participate in the development of strong funding relationships to sustain our immigration work. Coordinate and supervise the organization's accounting practices, fundraising efforts, general office management, and volunteer recruitment and management.

BLEISCH LAW FIRM, P.C., St. Louis, MO

Attorney

September 2009 - August 2014

Represented clients regarding various immigration matters before U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, U.S. Department of State, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, various Immigration Courts, the Board of Immigration Appeals, and the Federal Courts. Provided legal counseling to clients and potential clients regarding eligibility for immigration benefits and the immigration consequences of criminal convictions. Practice areas included asylum, refugee matters, family-based immigration, consular processing, adjustment of status, naturalization, removal defense, relief for victims of crime and human trafficking, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals, and temporary protected status.

INTERFAITH LEGAL SERVICES FOR IMMIGRANTS (ILSI), St. Louis, MO

Legal Director

January 2007 - July 2009

Coordinated and managed the legal work for the agency's various projects, including the Family Reunification Project, the Refugee and Asylum Seekers Project, and the Survivors of Torture Project. Supervised staff attorney, legal assistant, student interns, and volunteers in their case work. Maintained high personal caseload, including affirmative applications for immigration and naturalization benefits, and defensive applications for relief in removal proceedings. Provided high-quality representation to clients applying for asylum and relief under the Convention Against Torture. Responsible for ensuring all case-completion and client satisfaction goals were met for the various grants. Conducted community trainings.

Staff Attorney

January 2005 - December 2006

Provided direct legal representation to low-income immigrant families in various immigration matters, including political asylum, removal defense, family-based petitions, applications for victims of crime and trafficking, applications for permanent residence, applications for temporary protected status, and naturalization cases. Assisted refugees and asylees in sponsoring family members, obtaining travel documents and becoming permanent residents and U.S. citizens.

LEGAL SERVICES OF EASTERN MISSOURI, St. Louis, MO

Staff Attorney, Immigration Law Project & Housing Unit

August 2003 - January 2005

Provided direct legal services to low-income clients in immigration and housing cases. Represented noncitizens and their families in various immigration matters before Citizenship and Immigration Services, the Immigration Court, and the Board of Immigration Appeals, including family-based petitions, VAWA self-petitions, applications for permanent residence, applications for naturalization, and removal defense. Represented tenants in rent and eviction actions, subsidized housing termination hearings, and condemnation appeals. Represented homeless clients in municipal ordinance violation cases and a federal civil right lawsuit. Conducted community trainings.
